

The Kalka railway station is an interchange station on the Delhi–Shimla route. It has two sets of platforms, one for broad gauge trains coming from Delhi and the other for the narrow gauge trains going to Shimla.