

▲ The fourth Viceroy and Governor-General of India was Lord Mayo. A lot of infrastructure development in railways and expansion of roads took place during this tenure. He was assassinated in 1872 while visiting a penal colony in Port Blair in the Andaman islands.