

FULL VIEW OF THE SALOON

SIDE SHOWING THE VESTIBULE SYSTEM

Coat of arms The official emblem of Mysore incorporated the two-headed bird, referred to as Gandaberunda in Hindu mythology. The bird is flanked by a lion on each side. The emblem affixed on the saloon's exterior establishes its royal identity.