

locomotives. The development of the British Engineering Standards Association (BESA), which “enshrined the British locomotive designs” and picked five models as the standard for India to follow, quashed all competition.

▲ A Pakistan Railways locomotive is seen getting overhauled at the Mughulpura Workshop in Lahore.

Of iron and steel