

The marble statue of the Lady of Progress holds a wheel in her left hand to signify movement, speed, and change. In her right hand, she holds a torch to light the way towards progress.