

For their visit to India for the Delhi Durbar of 1911, His Royal Highness King George V and his queen consort Mary arrived in Bombay and travelled to Delhi, and later, Calcutta via train. This picture shows the royal couple at the Calcutta railway station during their visit.