

▲ VS Srinivasa Sastri was a political leader and India's delegate to the League of Nations in 1921. As a liberal, he championed the cause of equal rights in India.

Within the Indian subcontinent, the North Western, Eastern Bengal, Oudh and Rohilkhand, and Jorhat railways were under the direct control of the British Indian Government. The rest – more than a 100 – were managed by private companies. Lack of investment and operational fatigue during