

“The evidence given before us ... on behalf of all sections of the community was overwhelmingly strong as to the urgent need of ... reform and reconstruction of the entire railway machine.”

ACWORTH REPORT (1921)