

The Bombay–Poona railway route was electrified in 1929. This picture from the 1930s shows an electric engine pulling the Deccan Queen as it passes through the Western Ghats. The engine's number – 4004 – can be seen written in the front.