

Branch in 1928. The BB&CI signalling installations on the Churchgate–Virar section were remarkable as well.

Post 1947, there have been many improvements in the signalling method. From route relay interlocking, multiple aspect colour light signals, wireless communication, and automatic block to the Automatic Warning System (AWS), Centralized Traffic Control (CTC), and microwave networks, the field is growing rapidly.

▲ Railway traffic signal with colour lighting