

Rearranging matters

While presenting the Interim Railway Budget, Matthai also emphasized the importance of regrouping the lines affected by Partition. These included the East Punjab Railway, which was under the Railway Board, East Indian Railway, Oudh and Tirhut Railway, and the Indian portion of the Bengal and Assam Railway and Assam Railway. By 1948 in Gujarat, the Bhavnagar and Kathiawar State Railways and the Jamnagar and Dwarka, Gondal, and Morvi Railways all merged under the Saurashtra Railway. The following year the Gaekwad's Baroda State Railway became a part of the Bombay, Baroda and Central India (BB&CI) Railway.

▲ One of four locomotives completed for India by the American firm Baldwin Locomotive Works is loaded on to the Indian freighter Alaketu in 1947. India started becoming self-reliant from 1948.

An “Indian” Railway