

engine, an EB Wilson 2-2-2WT, imported from England. Reports suggest that the locomotive was used only for a short time before meeting with an accident. It did, however, usher in a new era in the history of transportation in India.