

MAHARANI RESTAURANT

The Rajasthani theme continues in the interior design of the Maharani dining cabin, with floral carpets and curtains, and featuring framed art from the Mughal period hanging on the walls. The most opulent touch is arguably the mirrored and teakwood-panelled ceiling.

1. Sumptuous dining room with mirrored ceiling 2. Mughal art in marble, created with vegetable colours, on carriage wall
3. Silk-embroidered drapes with floral design 4. Tree motif in stained glass on restaurant door 5. Panelled corridor
6. Kitchen positioned at one end of restaurant car
