

The fine dining restaurant in the Maharajas' Express recreates a luxurious royal experience. Named Mayur Mahal, after India's national bird, the peacock, it is ornately decorated, with a golden statue of a peacock adorning its entrance. The menu comprises flavourful dishes from cuisines around the world and guests are served with gold-plated cutlery.