

WITHIN THE STATES

The Rajya Rani Express connects state capitals to other important cities in the states. Launched in 2011, the first one ran between Mysore and Bengaluru in July. Other routes include Lucknow–Meerut, Mumbai–Manmad, Bengaluru–Pune, and Patna–Saharsa. These trains run on a daily basis, with the exception of the Bankura–Howrah Express and Jharsuguda–Bhubaneswar Express, both of which run triweekly. While most of these have chair cars, some offer sleeping accommodation.
