

▲ Viceroy Lord Lawrence urged on the importance of Government construction of railways in India.

Solution to the financial crisis

By the time Lord Lawrence assumed office as the Viceroy (1864–69), the financial crisis had peaked. By 1885, inclusive of the capital invested in the Guaranteed railways, the public debt of India had skyrocketed to