

ALL ABOARD: THE FIRST TRAIN JOURNEY TO RANEEGUNGE

The line which extended to Raneegunge, famous for its coal mines, opened for commercial use in February 1855. Its inauguration was an extravagant affair as both fine gentry and bewildered natives witnessed the majestic locomotive puff away.

▲ This sketch immortalizes the reception of the esteemed guests who travelled in the inaugural train to a lavish banquet at the Burdwan station.