

Cars

*Known as the
"Silver Ghost"*

Rolls Royce 40/50, UK; launched 1907;
top speed 88 kmh (55 mph)

Model T Ford, USA; launched 1908;
top speed 68 kmh (42 mph)

Introduced front wheel drive

Citroën Traction Avant, France; launched
1934; top speed 113 kmh (70 mph)

*Best-selling car
ever produced*

Volkswagen Beetle, Germany; launched
1939; top speed 132 kmh (82 mph)

Jaguar XK120, UK; launched 1949;
top speed 203 kmh (126 mph)

*An icon of 1950s
America*

Ford Thunderbird, USA; launched 1955;
top speed 183 kmh (114 mph)

*Famous
"gullwing" doors*

Mercedes-Benz 300SL, Germany; launched
1954; top speed 265 kmh (165 mph)

Fiat 500 D, Italy; launched 1957;
top speed 95 kmh (59 mph)

*Nicknamed
"the shark"*

Citroën DS, France; launched 1960;
top speed 187 kmh (116 mph)

Austin Mini Cooper, UK; launched
1963; top speed 161 kmh (100 mph)

A sporty, compact car

Ford Mustang, USA; launched 1964;
top speed 204 kmh (127 mph)

*Won the Le Mans
24-hour race four times
in a row*

Ford GT40, USA; launched 1964;
top speed 322 kmh (200 mph)

Streamlined shape

Porsche Carrera 911 RS, Germany; launched
1972; top speed 243 kmh (150 mph)

Classed as a passenger van

Toyota Previa, Japan; launched 1990;
top speed 180 kmh (111 mph)

*Micro-car is ecologically
designed and easy to park.*

Smart car, France/Germany; launched
1998; top speed 139 kmh (87 mph)

Trucks

Pickup or utilities truck:
useful for carrying small loads, these popular trucks
have open, flat backs

*Front, tractor
section*

Semitrailer: a monster truck suitable for a wide range of bulk or heavy goods

So heavy and wide, it can use only major roads

18 wheels