

The Great Depression	384	THE DEATH OF KENNEDY	420	Apartheid and Beyond	454	South America	494
The global economic depression that resulted from the Wall Street Crash.		Viva la Revolución!	422	The end of the system of Apartheid and a new beginning for South Africa.		Colombia, Venezuela, Guyana, Suriname, Ecuador, Peru, Bolivia, Brazil, Paraguay, Chile, Uruguay, Argentina.
Fascism	386	The revolutionary and popular movements that transformed Latin America.		Tiger Economies	456	Europe	502
The rise of fascism in parts of Europe, accompanied by increasing militarism and state control of all aspects of society.		China's Long March	424	Asia's economic boom.		United Kingdom, Ireland, France, Monaco, Spain, Andorra, Portugal, Italy, Vatican City, San Marino, Malta, Switzerland, Liechtenstein, Slovenia, Austria, Germany, Netherlands, Belgium, Luxembourg, Iceland, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Finland, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Poland, Czech Republic, Slovakia, Hungary, Romania, Moldova, Bulgaria, Croatia, Bosnia & Herzegovina, Serbia, Montenegro, Macedonia, Albania, Cyprus, Greece, Russian Federation, Ukraine, Belarus.
Spanish Civil War	388	Nationalism, communism, and Mao's rise to power in China.		Modern Technology	458
The conflict between fascism and communism that tore Spain apart.		BERLIN WALL	426	The innovations that transformed the 20th and 21st centuries.		Feeding the World	462
ADOLF HITLER	390	The Sixties	428	The revolution in biotechnology that boosted agricultural productivity around the world.		World Health	464
Blitzkrieg	392	Sexual equality, radical politics, and pop music—the decade that changed attitudes.		How astonishing advances in health and medicine have significantly improved and extended our lives.		9/11	466
How Hitler's armies swept through Western Europe in the early days of World War II.		The Vietnam War	430	The Gulf Wars	468	Globalization	470
STALINGRAD	394	America's war against communism in Southeast Asia.		The wars against Iraq.		The increased mobility of goods, services, labor, technology, and capital as a result of new communications technologies.
Total War	396	MARTIN LUTHER KING JR.	432	Superpower China	472	The rapid social and economic transformation of China after embracing the free market.
War in the Atlantic, North Africa, and the turning tide against Nazi Germany.		Civil Rights	434	The continual growth of cities as more and more people flock to urban centers.		Dynamic Populations	474
D-DAY	398	The nonviolent struggle for black civil rights in the US and other rights-based movements.		Climate Change	476	The continual warming of the world as a result of human activity.
The Holocaust	400	The Troubles	436	Shrinking World	478	The erosion of the barriers of time and distance through technological advances that have created a global community.
Mass murder on an unprecedented scale—the Nazi concentration camps.		The 30-year sectarian conflict between Catholic nationalist and Protestant Unionist communities in Northern Ireland.
War in the Pacific	402	Dictatorship and Democracy	438
The Pacific theater of war, from Pearl Harbor to 1945.		Latin American politics and society in the later part of the 20th century.
HIROSHIMA	404	The Oil Crisis	440
The Cold War	406	Rising fuel consumption and dependence on foreign imports that focused global attention on the Middle East.
The world divides between the communist East and the capitalist West.		The Iranian Revolution	442
MAHATMA GANDHI	408	The overthrow of the US-backed government and the foundation of the Islamic state of Iran.
The Partition of India	410	War in Afghanistan	444
Independence for the former British Raj as the subcontinent is divided into India and Pakistan.		Russia's invasion of Afghanistan and the decade-long war that ensued.
End of the Colonial Era	412	Perestroika	446
The assertion of independent rule by the former colonies in Africa, the Middle East, and Southeast Asia.		Mikhail Gorbachev and the collapse of the Soviet Union.
The Promised Land	414	Raising the Iron Curtain	448
The foundation of the State of Israel and its effects on the Middle East.		The end of the Eastern Bloc as the Soviet satellite states assert their independence.
ALBERT EINSTEIN	416	War in Yugoslavia	450
The American Dream	418	The ethnic nationalist divisions in post-communist Yugoslavia that led to civil war.
The booming economy and increase in mass production that created postwar affluence in the US.		United Europe	452
		The formation and progress of the European Community.

NATIONAL HISTORIES	480
North and Central America	482
United States, Canada, Mexico, Guatemala, Belize, Honduras, El Salvador, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Panama, Cuba, Jamaica, Haiti, Dominican Republic, Bahamas, Antigua & Barbuda, St. Kitts & Nevis, Dominica, St. Lucia, St. Vincent, Barbados, Grenada, Trinidad & Tobago.

INDEX	594
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	608

