

1830		1840		1850		1860

▲ Liberty Leading the People, Eugene Delacroix 1830 Revolution in Paris topples Charles X; Louis-Philippe crowned king of France. Belgian War of Independence (to 1831). First wagon train to California.		1840 Opium War, China, fought by the British and the Chinese; British troops force the Chinese to negotiate. Maoris obliged to accept British rule in New Zealand. ▼ Treaty of Nanjing		1854 Crimean War (to 1856): Britain and France ally with Ottomans, declare war on Russia. Britain recognizes independence of Orange Free State, South Africa. ◀ Opening of Great Exhibition, London		1865 Union victory in American Civil War; South devastated; Lincoln assassinated. French colony established in Senegal, West Africa. ◀ Otto von Bismarck

1838 Battle of Blood River: Boers massacre Zulus. 1839 Mahmud II introduces reforms to Ottoman Empire. Charles Darwin publishes diary of voyage on HMS Beagle. ◀ Johann Wolfgang von Goethe		1846 Japan refuses US demands to open trading links. Mexican-American War begins (to 1848): Mexico defeated. US claims California.		1851 Pseudo-Christian Taiping rebels march north through China: immense devastation. Great Exhibition opens, London. 1852 Britain acknowledges independence of Transvaal Boers. ▼ Indian Mutiny		1861 Abraham Lincoln elected president of the US; the slave states cede from the Union; American Civil War begins (to 1865). Serfdom abolished in Russia. Italy unifies.
						▲ Pistol used to assassinate Lincoln 1867 Austro-Hungarian dual monarchy. Bismarck chancellor of North German Confederation. Meiji restored, Japan. US purchases Alaska from Russia.
1831 Belgium achieves independence from Netherlands. Mass immigration to US from Ireland begins. 1832 Russia annexes Duchy of Warsaw. Death of Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, Germany.		1842 Treaty of Nanjing: China cedes Hong Kong to Britain, opens ports to foreign trade. Webster–Ashburton Treaty: US–Canadian border agreed.		1859 Second Italian War of Independence; Giuseppe Garibaldi serves as major general. Suez Canal begun. Charles Darwin's Origin of Species published. ◀ Giuseppe Garibaldi		1862 Taiping rebels attack Shanghai. Otto von Bismarck prime minister of Prussia. Foreigners expelled from Japan. 1863 Slavery outlawed in Confederacy, but not abolished until end of Civil War.
1834 Slavery abolished in British empire; Boers move north. ▶ Beagle specimen		1848 Gold discovered in California, prompting California Gold Rush. Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels publish The Communist Manifesto. ◀ The Communist Manifesto		1851 Pseudo-Christian Taiping rebels march north through China: immense devastation. Great Exhibition opens, London. 1852 Britain acknowledges independence of Transvaal Boers.		1861 Abraham Lincoln elected president of the US; the slave states cede from the Union; American Civil War begins (to 1865). Serfdom abolished in Russia. Italy unifies.	