

CONTENTS

ORIGINS

4.5 MYA–3000 BCE	12
Introduction and Timeline	14
Our Remote Ancestors	16
The human family tree from our earliest relatives to the dominance of Homo sapiens .
The Art of Communication	20
The emergence of speech, language, and artistic ability in early humans.
The Ice Age	22
Climate changes that began about 1.5 million years ago and how they affected humans.
Out of Africa	24
The migrations from Africa that resulted in human colonization of Earth.
Hunters and Gatherers	30
The prehistoric way of life—foraging and hunting for food.
The Spirit World	32
Early rituals and beliefs in the afterlife.
■ EARLY SOCIETIES	34
First Harvest	36
The development of societies based on agriculture and the domestication of animals.
Village Life	38
The cultivation of domestic crops and livestock brought about the first settled communities.
Rites and Rituals	40
Unraveling the mysteries of megalithic structures such as Stonehenge.

Precious Metal	42
From copperworking to the Bronze Age, the impact of the discovery of metalworking.
Town Planning	44
The development of increasingly complex and expanding communities.

RULERS & HIERARCHIES

3000–700 BCE	46
Introduction and Timeline	48
Sickness and Health	52
Illness, disease, and early attempts to understand and treat them.
The Cradle of Civilization	54
The rise of complex societies between the Tigris and Euphrates rivers in Mesopotamia.
The Divine Pharaohs	56
Egypt's Old Kingdom, which flourished on the banks of the Nile River, over 2000 years BCE, and saw the construction of the pyramids.
Mysteries of the Indus	58
The cities and civilization that developed in the Indian subcontinent's Indus Valley.
Bronze Age China	60
The Shang dynasty, which produced two major achievements: writing and bronze casting.

The Writing on the Wall	62
The independent development of writing systems throughout the world, including cuneiform and hieroglyphs.
Egypt in Order and Chaos	64
The rise and fall of ancient Egypt from the order of the Middle and New Kingdoms to the chaotic Intermediate Periods.
■ RAMESES II	66
The Realm of Osiris	68
The cult of the god Osiris, and the extensive rituals surrounding death and the afterlife in ancient Egypt.
■ EGYPTIAN ARTIFACTS	70
Building for Eternity	72
The architecture of ancient empires, including the monumental tombs of ancient Egypt and the ziggurats of Mesopotamia.
People of the Jaguar	74
The first great civilizations of Mesoamerica and South America—the Olmecs and the Chavíns.
Europe's First Civilization	76
The Minoans, who flourished on the Mediterranean island of Crete during the Bronze Age.
Bronze Age Collapse	78
The diplomatic and trading community of civilizations that existed in the Middle East, and the mysterious collapse of the Bronze Age system.
Rulers of the Iron Age	80
The great Assyrian Empire, which dominated the Middle East for two centuries during the Iron Age, from the 9th century BCE.
Conquering Sea and Desert	82
The complex network of trade routes that developed over the Mediterranean Sea and across the deserts of Arabia and Africa.

THINKERS & BELIEVERS

700 BCE–600 CE	84
Introduction and Timeline	86
Frontiers of Power	90
How the vast ancient empires of Eurasia were shaped by the landscape and environment.
The Persian Empire	92
The Achaemenid empire of Persia, the extent of which was on an unprecedented scale, stretching across Asia to the Mediterranean.
The Greek City-States	94
The great city-states of ancient Greece, including Athens, Sparta, and Corinth.
■ ALEXANDER THE GREAT	96
The Greeks in Asia	98
The aftermath of Alexander the Great's conquests in the Middle East and Asia, and the cultures that adopted Greek ideas.
The Birth of Democracy	100
The development of the democratic system in ancient Athens, whose principles inform the most common form of government today.
From Myth to History	102
The rediscovery of writing in ancient Greece and the shift from oral to written history.
Triumphs of Greek Science	104
The roots of modern scientific method lie with the ancient Greeks who sought logical answers to life's mysteries.
The Rise of Rome	106
From humble beginnings on the hills above the Tiber River, a mighty city and empire rose.
■ JULIUS CAESAR	108
From Republic to Empire	110
The Roman empire gave rise to a remarkable culture, whose influence is still seen today.

