

CARRIER POWER

A carrier task group, led by USS Essex, heads into action in the Philippine Sea in 1944. The scale of US naval air operations grew to overwhelming proportions, while Japanese carrier aviation shrank to a shadow of its former power.

