

1: Located in Hawaii, this is the most active volcano on Earth.

2: The Grand Canyon was formed due to years of erosion caused by this body of water.

3: This NASA orbiter was part of the Space Shuttle program that ended in 2011.

4: This medicine, discovered by the Scottish scientist Alexander Fleming, kills bacteria.

5: This was first tested in 1617 by Faust Vrancic, in Italy.

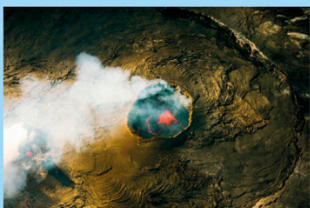

6: This animal lives in the African grasslands and uses its body color as camouflage.

Where in the world?

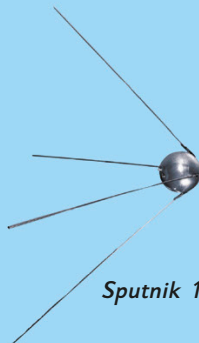

Match the description of each of these objects or animals with the pictures and discover what part of the world each belongs to.

Blood

Mount Kilauea

Sputnik 1

Parachute

Dead Sea

Emperor penguin