

Every inch a thoroughbred
Operated by the Battle of Britain Memorial Flight, MkIIa P7350 is the oldest substantially original Spitfire still flying. Entering service in August 1940, it is a true Battle of Britain veteran.

SPECIFICATIONS
Model	Supermarine Spitfire MkII, 1940	Engines	1,150 hp Rolls-Royce Merlin 45 supercharged liquid-cooled V12
Origin	UK	Wingspan	36 ft 10 in (11.23 m)
Production	20,351	Length	29 ft 11 in (9.12 m)
Construction	Aluminum alloy stressed-skin	Range	405 miles (651km)
Maximum weight	6,172 lb (2,799 kg)	Top speed	357 mph (575 km/h)

