

Acknowledgments

Dorling Kindersley would like to thank Philip Whiteman for his support throughout the making of this book.

General Consultant Philip Whiteman is an award-winning aviation journalist and consulting engineer, specializing in fuel and engine technology. He has contributed to numerous aviation publications and is the Editor of Pilot, the UK's longest established and bestselling general aviation magazine. He has flown many of the aircraft featured in Aircraft and operates a 1944 Piper L-4H Cub from a farm strip in Buckinghamshire.

Philip Whiteman would like to thank the many aviation writers, historians, and photographers—both named and anonymous—who played a part in preparing Aircraft, as well as Dorling Kindersley's fantastically hardworking, patient, and above all good-humored editorial and design team.

The publisher would like to thank the following people for their help with making the book: Peter Cook for the use of his images; Mel Fisher, Steve Crozier at Butterfly Creative Solutions, and Tom Morse for color retouching; Carol Davis, Gadi Farfour, Rebecca Guyatt, Francesca Harris, Richard Horsford, Amy Orsborne, and Johnny Pau for design help; Sonia Charbonnier for technical support; Sachin Singh at DK Delhi for DTP help; Senior Jacket Designer Suhita Dharamjit; DTP Designer Rakesh Kumar; Jackets Editorial Coordinator Priyanka Sharma; Managing Jackets Editor Saloni Singh; Joanna Chisholm for proofreading; Sue Butterworth for the index.

The publisher would also like to thank the following museums, companies and individuals for their generosity in allowing Dorling Kindersley access to their aircraft and engines for photography:

Bob Morcom for helping arrange photography for several aircraft and locations

Nigel Pickard for allowing us to photograph his Spartan Executive for the jacket image
