

THE VANIR GODS

The Vanir are the second tier of gods in Norse mythology. Less important than the Aesir, they are associated with health, fertility, nature and wisdom. They are also magic-wielders and can see into the future. The Vanir joined the Aesir to end the Aesir-Vanir War.

DAYS OF THE WEEK

Four of our days are named after Norse gods: Tuesday comes from Tyr, Wednesday from Odin (or "Woden", the Old English version of Odin), Thursday comes from Thor, and Friday is named after Frigg.
