DWARVES

The most skilled craftworkers in the cosmos, dwarfs live underground – mining, metalworking and making treasures. Some say they grew from the maggots that crawled in the dead body of the giant Ymir, others say the gods created them.

Svartalfheim is the dwarf's underground home – a maze of tunnels, halls and fire-lit forges, ringing with the sound of hammers striking metal.

The Sons of Ivaldi are a group of master craftsmen of metal and magic. They made Odin's spear, Freyr's ship and Sif's golden hair.

Brokk and Eitri are brothers, expert treasure-makers, and rivals to the Sons of Ivaldi. They created Thor's hammer, Freyr's golden boar and Odin's magical ring, Draupnir.
