

ODIN

RULER OF THE GODS

Odin is the all-powerful, all-knowing ruler of the gods and goddesses. He is also god of magic, poetry and prophesy, and war and death. Odin's beard is long and his single eye shines as bright as the Sun – his other eye he traded for wisdom.

PARENTS: Bor and Bestla

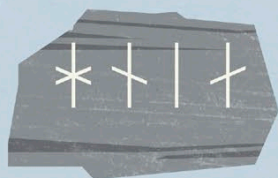

CHILDREN: Baldr, Heimdall, Hermod, Hodr, Saeming, Thor, Váli, Vidar, and Bragi (possibly)

SACRED SYMBOLS

MEAD OF POETRY

This powerful drink was stolen by Odin. It allows him to recite great poetry.

RUNES

Odin sacrificed himself so he could read the runes – a source of great wisdom.

GUNGNIR

This is Odin's spear – a symbol of power, protection, and authority.

DRAUPNIR

Odin's ring can multiply itself and is a symbol of kingship and sacrifice.

ODIN'S ANIMALS

Odin has several animals under his care. Hugin and Munin are his gossip-gathering ravens, and Freki and Geri are his ferocious wolves. He also rides an eight-legged horse named Sleipnir, who can gallop through the air and over the raging sea.
