

HEIMDALL

THE WATCHMAN OF THE GODS

Heimdall is known as the shining god, and he has gold teeth. He lives in Himinbjörg ("sky-cliffs") at the entrance to Asgard, guarding Bifrost and keeping enemies out. An excellent watchman, he can see far into the distance, needs less sleep than a bird, and can hear sheep's wool and grass growing.

PARENTS: Odin and the Nine Maidens

CHILDREN: Thrall, Karl, Jarl

SACRED SYMBOLS

GJALLARHORN

When blown, this horn will resound throughout the Nine Worlds.

BIFROST

The Rainbow Bridge – Bifrost – connects Asgard to Midgard.

GULLTOPPR

Heimdall's horse is called Gulltoppr, meaning "golden-mane".

HOFUD

Hofud is Heimdall's sword – its name means "head".

RAGNARÖK

At the time of Ragnarök, when the trolls and frost giants gather on Asgard's borders, Heimdall will blow his horn to call the gods to war. It's foretold that Heimdall and Loki will fight and kill each other.