

The Norse world is filled with strange creatures, many of which are powerful enough to make even the gods afraid. The giants – often the agents of darkness, disorder and chaos – are the gods' eternal enemy.

Many other creatures make their home in the cosmos. Dwarfs live underground – mining, smelting and making precious objects. There are enormous serpents, ferocious wolves, golden boars, mysterious elves, fiery dragons, and even an eight-legged horse.