

Greenland

The Vikings explored this snowy land and called it "Greenland" to encourage more people to settle here.

*"Viking" means
"sea-raider".*

Iceland

Some Norse people worshipped at a beautiful crescent-shaped waterfall in Iceland called Godafoss, which means "waterfall of the gods".

ATLANTIC OCEAN

NORTH AMERICA

Newfoundland

Many Viking houses were long, low, and rectangular in shape.

NORSE LANDS

The Norse people, also called the Vikings, were originally from Scandinavia – made up of Denmark, Norway and Sweden. In around the 8th to 11th centuries CE they set forth from their stark and beautiful lands to explore, raid, trade and settle. They spoke Old Norse and told great stories, which became known as the Norse myths.

