

Evergreen hybrid azaleas Growing 3ft (1m) tall, this group includes dwarf and cascading varieties. The mostly unscented flowers, appear from mid-spring to early summer.

Deciduous hybrid azaleas These reach up to 5ft (1.5m) in height and include Ghent and Exbury hybrids. The flowers, often scented, appear from mid-spring to early summer.

Dwarf rhododendrons These tough, alpine evergreen shrubs flower mainly in mid-spring and most grow to just 20in (50cm) in height. They are ideal for rock gardens and containers.