

TREE MEDIUM

Malus x moerlandsii 'Profusion'

FLOWERING CRABAPPLE This deciduous tree bears masses of deep pink spring blooms set against purple-tinted leaves, which age to green and have bold fall tints. Purple fruits follow the flowers.
 ↳ 30ft (10m)

☀️ Z4–8

TREE SMALL

Mespilus germanica

MEDLAR Grown mainly for its edible fruits, this spreading deciduous tree also bears attractive, white single spring flowers, carried at the shoot tips. It is slow-growing and suitable for smaller gardens. Plant it in full sun in a sheltered position.
 ↳ 20ft (6m) ↔ 25ft (8m)

☀️ Z5–8

TREE SMALL

Prunus 'Accolade'

FLOWERING CHERRY Grow this compact deciduous tree in a small garden or a courtyard. It produces light pink semidouble spring flowers that open from dark pink buds before the oval leaves appear. The foliage has good fall color.
 ↳ 25ft (8m)

☀️ ⚠️ Z4–9

TREE MEDIUM

Prunus 'Kanzan'

syn. Prunus serrulata 'Kwanzan' This vase-shaped deciduous tree has pink double spring blooms that create a focal point in a lawn or bed. Bronze leaves, which follow the flowers, turn green in summer, then orange before falling. Makes a good street tree.
 ↳ 30ft (10m)

☀️ ⚠️ Z5–8

TREE SMALL

Prunus pendula

WEeping CHERRY Perfect as a focal point in a small garden, this deciduous tree has weeping branches that are covered with dark rose-pink blossom in early spring. The pointed oval leaves turn orange and red in fall.
 ↳ 20ft (6m)

☀️ ⚠️ Z5–8

SHRUB LARGE

Prunus incisa

FUJI CHERRY Use this rounded deciduous shrub in a border or as hedging. Saucer-shaped white or pale pink flowers appear in early spring, followed by purple fruits. The leaves add value in fall when they turn orange-red.
 ↳ 25ft (8m)

☀️ ⚠️ Z4–8

TREE MEDIUM

Prunus jamasakura

syn. Prunus serrulata var. spontanea This deciduous tree bursts into color in spring when clusters of pale pink buds open to reveal large white flowers. The bronze young foliage, which turns red and yellow in fall, adds to the effect.
 ↳ 40ft (12m)

☀️ ⚠️ Z5–8

TREE SMALL

Prunus 'Shirofugen'

JAPANESE FLOWERING CHERRY This compact deciduous tree is ideal for a small garden. In spring, masses of white double flowers, fading to pink, appear. The coppery brown young leaves mature to green and turn orange in fall.
 ↳ 25ft (8m) ↔ 30ft (10m)

☀️ ⚠️ Z5–8

TREE SMALL

Prunus 'Shirotae'

JAPANESE FLOWERING CHERRY This deciduous tree has a spreading crown. It will decorate a paved urban garden or lawn with its fragrant, white semidouble spring flowers that appear with the green serrated foliage; the leaves also offer good fall color.
 ↳ 20ft (6m) ↔ 25ft (8m)

☀️ ⚠️ Z5–8