

Plants for pond perimeters

PERENNIAL SMALL

Houttuynia cordata*
'Chameleon'

HOUTTUYNIA This vigorous deciduous perennial has aromatic, heart-shaped, yellow- and red-splashed green leaves and sprays of greenish white summer flowers. Contain to control invasive spread. †4in (10cm) ↔ indefinite

💧 Z5–10

PERENNIAL MEDIUM

Iris ensata

JAPANESE WATER IRIS This upright, clump-forming perennial has straplike, drooping green foliage and beardless yellow-blazed purple or red-purple flowers from early- to midsummer. 'Rose Queen' (above) has lilac-pink flowers. †3ft (1m) ↔ 24ft (60cm)

💧 Z4–9

PERENNIAL MEDIUM

Iris sibirica

SIBERIAN IRIS A clump-forming perennial with upright, swordlike blue-green leaves and large beardless flowers in shades of blue, pink, white, and yellow from late spring to early summer. 'Butter and Sugar' (above) has yellow and white blooms. †3ft (1m) ↔ indefinite

💧 ! Z3–9

PERENNIAL MEDIUM

Iris versicolor

BLUE FLAG This upright, clump-forming perennial, with arching strap-shaped foliage and blue-purple flowers in early summer, can be grown in a bog or shallow water. Varieties include the purple-pink 'Kermensina' (above). †32in (80cm) ↔ indefinite

💧 Z3–9 (N)

TREE MEDIUM

Liquidambar styraciflua

SWEET GUM A conical to spreading deciduous tree with large, lobed, glossy dark green leaves that turn brilliant orange, red, and purple in fall. 'Variegata' (above) has gold-splashed foliage. Site it some distance from the pond edge. †50ft (15m) ↔ 25ft (8m)

💧 Z5–9 (N)

PERENNIAL MEDIUM

Lobelia cardinalis

CARDINAL FLOWER This upright deciduous perennial has narrow, lance-shaped glossy green leaves and striking scarlet spires of two-lipped summer flowers on tall stems. It is toxic; wear gloves when handling. It attracts butterflies and hummingbirds. †30in (75cm) ↔ 9in (23in)

💧 ! Z3–9 (N)

PERENNIAL MEDIUM

Lysimachia clethroides

GOOSENECK LOOSESTRIFE This is a vigorous, clump-forming, spreading perennial with narrow, lance-shaped gray-green foliage. In late summer, it produces long, tapering flower heads comprising small white blooms. †↔3ft (1m)

💧 Z3–8

PERENNIAL MEDIUM

Persicaria microcephala*
'Red Dragon'

KNOTWEED This vigorous, spreading perennial has heart-shaped reddish green leaves with silver and bronze markings. Tiny white flowers appear in midsummer. Cut back spent flower stems in fall. †28in (70cm) ↔ 3ft (1m)

💧 Z5–9

Lobelia siphilitica

BLUE CARDINAL FLOWER This is an upright perennial with narrow, lance-shaped light green leaves. From mid- to late summer, it produces tall spikes of long-lasting, tubular, two-lipped blue flowers. Plant it toward the back of a bed. †3ft (1m) ↔ 9in (23cm)

💧 ! Z4–8 (N)