

1: Every winter this animal travels all the way from cold Canada to warm Mexico.

2: This animal, which lives in the Arctic Circle, can hold its breath for up to two minutes underwater.

3: This European animal uses its amazing eyesight and hearing to hunt at night.

5: This North African animal has two toes that are widely spaced for walking on sand.

8: This Amazonian animal is brightly coloured to warn off predators.

9: This Antarctic animal is specially camouflaged to make it hard to see underwater.

Where in the world?

Discover where each animal lives by matching the descriptions with the pictures.

Camel

Barn owl

Great white shark

Polar bear

Tuatara

Koala