

3 While the cerulean blue on the beach is still wet, paint the shadows on the rocks and the beach with Windsor violet, using the No. 14 brush. Add cadmium orange for the color of the sand.

4 Mix cadmium yellow and emerald green and paint the grass, adding cerulean blue for the more distant grass. Add shadows to the rock in the foreground with French ultramarine. Use cerulean blue to paint the distant rock.

5 Strengthen the color of the sea with turquoise deep, using the No. 5 brush. Paint the mid-range greens on the cliff tops using a lime green mix of emerald green and cadmium yellow, with a little cadmium orange added to it.
