

conversion 38, 39
 lump sums (pensions) 197, 202
 cash flow 26, 36–9
 gap 39
 management of 38–9
 positive and negative 38–9
 central banks 100–103, 112
 Bank of England 236–7
 and banking reserves 90 and base rate 120, 122–3, 236 case for independent 99 and money supply 98, 99 and negative interest rate 123 support for commercial banks 88 transparency and accountability 113 certificate of deposit 57, 165 Child Trust Funds 242
 children
 cost of 152, 153, 162, 198, 199 savings accounts 242
 China, economic slowdown 71 claims, insurance 79
 Classical School 23
 coinage 12, 16–19
 “coins”, virtual 222, 223
 collateral 180
 commercial banks 71, 72–3
 and central banks 100–103, 113, 121, 124 interest rates 121
 lending 98
 loans 88, 89
 negative interest rates 123 reserve rates 90
 commercial loan providers 82 commercial paper 57
 commercial property 178 commodities 54
 commodity-backed currency 87 Companies House 234, 235 company finance
 bonds 50–51, 237
 cash flow 36–9
 corporate accounting 26–45, 234–5 depreciation, amortization and depletion 32–3 derivatives 52–3
 expensing vs capitalizing 30–31 financial reporting 44–5 gearing ratio and risk 40–41 how companies use debt 42–3 and investment banks 74–5 issuing shares 182, 183 large-, medium- and small-cap 188 and money market 56–7
 net income 28–9
 pensions 196–7, 200

share dividends 164–5
 shares 48–9
 smoothing earnings 34–5
 tax submissions 235 United Kingdom 232–5
 comparative advantage 21 competitors 62
 compound interest 208–9
 Consolidated Fund 236
 Consumer Credit Act (1974) 245
 Consumer Price Index (CPI) 120 consumption expenditure 114 consumption, government 97 contingent liabilities 153 contractionary policy 93 copyright 235
 corporate advisory division (investment banks) 74, 75 corporate finance see company finance corporation tax 37, 126, 234, 235, 238, 241 cost of living 132
 cost-push inflation 132–3 costs
 as assets 30–31
 property 170–71
 council revenue 238–9
 council tax 238
 coupons 50, 51
 credit access 103
 credit cards 18, 155, 204, 218–19
 charges 73
 debt 207
 fraud 219
 UK 245
 credit checks 82
 credit crunch 92, 215
 credit guidance 102, 103
 credit limit 219
 credit money 88
 credit rating 160, 177, 205, 207, 216
 credit report 176
 credit unions 83, 205
 creditors 41, 43
 cross-selling 73
 crowdfunding 83, 188, 220, 221, 226–7 cryptocurrency 220, 222–5, 243 currency 46
 central banks 100
 in circulation 86, 99
 commodity-backed 87
 confidence in value of 97
 digital 220, 221
 fiat 87, 220
 foreign exchange and trading 58–9 international currency fluctuations 138–9 representative 87

reserve 139
 traditional 222
 UK 236
 UK stock of foreign 236
 currency pairs 59
 currency values 55
 current accounts balance of payments 136, 137
 commercial banks 72, 73
 credit unions 217
 non-bank financial institutions 83
 customs duty 241
 cuts, vs spending 128

D

Dalio, Ray 189
 day trading 68–9
 dealers 61
 debasement 18
 debentures 163
 debit cards 88, 204
 debt 204–19
 attitude to 157
 credit cards 218–19
 credit unions 216–17
 finance 41
 and gearing ratio 40–41 government default 142–3, 146–7 government repayment 97, 108, 109 how companies use 42–3 interest and compound interest 208–9 internal and external 111
 loans 210–11
 managing personal 151, 157
 mortgages 212–15
 and net worth 152–3
 public debt 110–11
 spirals 146–7
 taxpayers' 239
 ways to borrow money 204–5
 and wealth 155
 why we use debt 206–7
 default 51, 109, 110, 111, 142, 146–7, 211 deficit government 104, 109, 110, 128 pension funds 141
 defined benefit pension schemes 197, 198, 200 defined contribution pension schemes 198, 200 deleverage 41
 demand-pull inflation 132, 134–5 demographics 141
 Department for Business, Energy &